	Subject	Action
1	Any Matters Arising NONE
	Correspondence (SW)
2	Read out a letter he had received from a member complaining about the verbal and foul language a lady member had received, from a male fellow member. It was agreed that our Vice Chairman would write to the member advising that the club would not tolerate this kind of behaviour, and warn that if any further infringement could lead to his membership being revoked. (GW)	(SW)
3	Had received e-mails from a member who complained about the New Years Eve party, it was agreed that (SW) would also deal with this matter as some of the e-mails had been forwarded to him.	(SW)
4	New Members (GW)
5	Ronald Jarrad. Tim Polglase. A Brown. Mrs J Renwick. Elizabeth Oliver. Shelly Wilkin. Rachael Hickling.
6	Finance (RH)
7	Said that this financial year was almost identical to last year which is good news. Secretaries (GW)
	NONE
8	Bar (TS)
9	Informed the Committee with regret that due to the pressure of work he would not be able to continue his volunteer shift on Saturdays. The committee thanked him for all he had done. This would mean we are looking for volunteers to help on Saturdays from 3pm till 7pm.	(GW)

House

(RT)

Had found someone to make a new stained glass window if the fan is removed this is an ongoing matter.

He also spoke about the purchase of a D.A.B. radio for music (now installed). He is also about to purchase a new microphone, as you all know who attend quiz nights, the old one is past its sell by date.

The cellar and bar area is still an ongoing matter, and a team made up of T Smith R Harker R Thornton and Willie Brennan will try to take this matter forward. The bookshelf's in the lounge bar as not been done but

(RT) would now take charge of this job.

Entertainments

(RH)

Started by asking (GW) to minute the clubs thanks to all the ladies who produced some wonderful food for the New Year's party

Race Night is our next event on the 19th of January.

Any Other Business

(RH)

The date for the AGM was agreed as 1st of March 2013 at 8pm start.

There being no other Business the Meeting closed at 8 17 pm
